Fund raiser Colin advised the need for additional club uniforms and the Board had approved minimum numbers be ordered – probably 20 sets – which would equate to 5 new members

International Frank reported on the Boards approval to grant $2500 towards the orphanage for HIV children - Community Ron suggested that we may add to the $10000

It was noted that the club had already donated $10,000 to the cord bank

New generations Ron reported on the success of the bowel scan programme – approximately 400 kits distributed

The club has received a letter of thanks from veronica, who we sponsored to attend the Leeuwin adventure trip

Pres elect Andy a vote of thanks to Colin for work in running bnb which three members have to fill in while he is on holidays

Sergent Lew moved with blinding speed

- The monthly chook was awarded to Andy for removing the plug in his “s” bend in the sing and then washing it with the tap on in the same sink
- Any one who has not used a swear word similar to Michael Braun
- any one who had clean gutter
- Ron Sloan for not having gutters
- Wayne for purchasing a new caravan - Wayne will need a new vehicle to tow the caravan
- Steve foster for being the newest and youngest member

Box buy on Lew for not sending Wendy up to clean gutters

Guest speaker Vin Rogers

Born in Brookton father work for the railways and trapper on the side kept the family coats on. - lost his farther when 31/2 years - Moved to Dumbleyung - played local footy - came under notice and was invited to play with swan districts in 1960
