Bill Douglas' Blog This is just a short note to keep you up to date that after 6 years we are moving back to Perth.

My contract with Chevron in Thailand expires at the end of January and I have been very fortunate (I have had it confirmed today) to have received and accepted an offer from Chevron in Perth to work on the very large "Gorgon" project.

I finish up here on 31 Jan and start my new position on 4 Feb.

My business and personal emails will remain the same.

See you soon and we will catch up???????????????? Bill

Club Projector: Sgt Colin suggested that the club purchase a suitable projector for both video and power point presentations John Stockbridge to investigate

Bowelscan Chairman Jeff Cairns: Bowelscan as a statewide program has now completed two years and last year sold some 5,200 kits with a return ratio of 60% assisted by 101 pharmacies and 27 Rotary clubs. Two thousand and eight will see an emphasis on additional Regional Rotary clubs such as Kalgoorlie, wheat belt towns, Geraldton and Albany. Promotion is through Market Force utilizing press, television and radio, a total of $50,000 in donated advertising.

Sgt Colin: Last weeks stand in sergeant's victims were given an initial reprieve, the balance coughed up $2, all subsequent fines $1

- Jeff Cairns as a visitor
- Bernie and Phil for shirts of the week
- All those who couldn't identify the logo on the obverse side of the $1 coin (Apex logo)
- Whoever anticipated a DG's visit and wore a tie, which was subsequently removed
- Vic for missing in action
- Anyone taking a cruise departing on January 16th
- Anyone installing a new kitchen
- The bulletin editor who last week missed recording most of that week's meeting by not turning on the tape recorder, this week, while not repeating that error, had to be reminded by Colin R to take it home at the conclusion of the meeting

Phil Hinwood: Provided a brief travelogue as the third act of the evening's presentations by showing some of photographs from a recent trip to South Australian, which included Kangaroo Island and Wilpena Pound and scenes of various ferries and the occasional light aircraft. During question time Phil revealed that he and Kay are ordering a purpose built 24-foot caravan, commencing construction in March, Phil is to select the interior décor with a strong emphasis on the colour green.
