The meeting of 20th January will also be at a different venue – Catalano’s Café, 266 Albany Highway, Victoria Park, time and cost to be advised at a later date. Returning to the Golf Club on January 27th. The meetings of 13th and 20th January can include partners.

The annual Rotary Youth Program of Enrichment (RYPEN) seminar from Friday 27th to Sunday 29th March, all participants to be more than 14 years old and younger than 18 as at the 27th March 2009, due to insurance requirements no exceptions can be made. Applicants can be sourced through family, friends, local schools, youth groups such as scouts, churches etc.

Program Chairman and PHF Ted Evans reported that guest speakers have been arranged until the end of March, except for a special meeting in President Ron’s hands.

The Bulletin Editor due to advancing years and declining memory is to record January meetings.

President Ron requested Sgt John for permission to add to his earlier statement regarding next weeks meeting in that dress can be casual beach attire has been suggested.

Fundraising Director Colin reiterated the ongoing saga regarding bins and that the current “blue” bin located behind the toilets is to be used for the benefit of Bring & Buy refuse, people that are vertically challenged may require assistance in emptying wheelie bins. Andy requested a swap on the Bring & Buy roster for Sunday 7th June 2009, the advance notice being appreciated.

P/E Mike announced that due to there not having a regular meeting next week duties are not required except for Bring & Buy on the 11th January with the team being Lois & Ray Smith, Margaret & Ross Evans and John Stockbridge. The January 4th B & B team leader Wayne reported on a successful market and for that time of the year an average income of $1,219

Club Service Director Mike reported on a discussion that he had with Golf Club Chef Angela, regarding meals. Angela requested that Rotarians should come up with suggested menus for both winter and summer.

Bulletin Editor’s suggestion:

	Soup	Main Meal	Dessert
Summer 1 st Oct – 31 st March	No	Fish & Chips with Salad	Fruit Salad & Ice-cream
Winter 1 st April – 30 th Sep	Yes	Roast (Beef, Lamb, Pork or Chicken)	No

If members could suggest a menu, in writing, listing their desired dish, than Mike could tabulate these, come up with a consensus and confer with Angela.

Sgt John and Cpl Lloyd

1. All those that didn't send the Sgt a Christmas card
2. John Mitchell for not being able to afford an alarm clock
3. Cpl Lloyd for being accepted as part of the Rotary Cricketing Fellowship gala function which is forming part of the 2009 Birmingham Rotary Convention
4. Ted for being either the first here tonight or the last from the previous week
5. All those who went to bed and failed to see in the New Year
6. John Mitchell fined Colin Waters for encouraging people to dump their rubbish at Bring & Buy

At the close of the regular meeting members went to their committee meetings, which will be reported on in the fullness of time.

Guess who is doing his best to reduce the shark population
