Sgt Lloyd opened the meeting and welcomed everyone.

PP Ron took over the reins of the meeting due to the absence of the president and welcomed back Colin Ralph and wished Colin Waters an enjoyable trip. He announced that John Mitchell would be filling in as Vocational Director much to John's surprise. He then accosted Doug Parker and gloated over the Docker's loss and someone somewhere along the line is owed a lottery ticket. Ron announced that he would be away for four week's and was heading for 80 mile beach with his beloved wife Faye.

Ray Smith spoke about the Kanyana project and requested the assistance of three or four budding Rembrandt's to put the final coat on the outside wall on Sunday. Geoff, Ron Bradock and Frank volunteered and Frank then volunteered Sylvia to assist as well. All helpers to please provide brushes or rollers and arrive at 08.00.

Ray advised that he had become an apprentice cabinet maker having assisted Ross with the installation of the cabinets last Saturday but had trouble with straight lines.

There would be help required to lay the paving outside the hut at a later stage. Ray would need to look at the paving that had been donated by Kanyana.

Doug advised that he has computer problems; he can receive but cannot send. The AGM and nominations for RAWCS Western Region is to be held on Wednesday 9th September at 17.30 at the Belmont Sports and Recreation Centre, corner of Keane Street and Abernethy Road.

DG selection interviews were held on 15th June and the DG's for 2011/2012 are:-

Liz Westoby (Perth) District 9455

Jodi Sparks (Ascot) District 9465

Challenges to be made by close of business Monday 31st August 2009.

Phil Cordery has a web page called Rotary Out West rotaryoutwest.blogspot.com.

Rotary International sent in a catalogue of Rotary garments available, see Doug if you are interested.

ARHF has granted an extension to Gemma McCleod for her PhD scholarship, there will be no need for further contributions from Thornlie Rotary Club.

Ray announced that Ian Archibald had been in The Mount Hospital for insertion of stents for his cardiac problem, but it is more extensive and he

Following Weeks Duties	Is required to have bypass graft surgery at a later stage.
1st September 09	Ron Bradock advised that Yvonne thanked the club members for her birthday card.
