This Coming Weeks Guest Speaker	Maggie Nolan – New Hope Update

John S told us our new web site was up and running, we have had 280 hits since Saturday, Ron Bradborn our other Web Wizard was suitably impressed, a big thankyou to John came from all of the members.

Social Lloyd needs to know ASAP if there is anyone else who wants to go on the Camel ride.

Lloyd has booked the Hyatt for our Christmas lunch party, Sunday the 11th of December, he needs numbers next week please, it would seem the cost will be around the $45 - $49 mark depending on drinking or non drinking .

International John has received the information he had requested from New Hope, this is an update of all their projects. He will post it on the web.

Wayne thanked the club for the flowers and thoughts given to Chris during her recent bout in hospital.

The magic number this week, from Arthur's team, was $1345.

Fundraising Colin advised us that from 1st of October onwards, Bring'N'Buy will be a 5 30 am start.

Sergeant Ken enlisted standing corporal Ron Bradborn. Fines were

- The property people copped it first, no sash or gonger.
- All those that did not check the new web site.
- All those not at the meeting last week.
- Ron Bradborn for adding to the road kill.
- Ron Bradborn, this time for being a TV personality.
- Colin R for his 2-1 ashes t-shirt. And before he had a chance to sit down, copped it for the offensive colours (red and white).
- Ian for leaving his lights on in the carpark.
- Mike and Lois Evans birthdays.
- Box buy John S on Ken. John found out that he was well down the list when Ken was looking for a stand in Sergeant for last week.

Without a break, we went straight into a discussion on the new state legislation for voluntary clubs and the necessity to have police clearance.

After much discussion it was agreed that Gary and Ken would contact the DG to get clarification on a number of issues and concerns that were raised by some members.

Our police clearance forms need to be completed, with all boxes ticked, by 11th October.

No doubt we shall have an update from Gary and Ken next week.
