Week After 21st March	The meeting was opened by Songmaster Andy with a fairly forgettable version of Waltzing Matilda, quickly followed by Toastmaster Lloyd with a toast to the Rotary Club of Cairo River Nile. President Chris announced that she and Colin will be away in New Zealand for the next three meetings. Various stand-ins have been arranged, and who they are mostly depends on the state of Mike’s health on any particular day. RYPEN Nominations can now be sent forward so if you know of anyone who would benefit PP Doug outlined the considerable media exposure that the PREM Bank project has received over recent days. This all helps with the ongoing success of the project. We have three applications for the PhD scholarships and rumour has it the Ron Bradborn is one of them (he must be a good chance). Mike and Louise were thanked loudly for again opening their home for Tomato Sauce Day and Lloyd was thanked fairly quietly for organising the play at the Don Russell Centre. PP Colin gave a lengthy dissertation on the new Rotary Stanley Knife and its use in relation to cardboard boxes. From the look of total confusion on most faces this will become a longer saga than “The Rope”. Watch out for further instalments.	Week After 28th March

Albert let us know that we had sold close to 300 Bowel Scan kits so far with a projection of 400 by weeks end. A fabulous outcome from our first effort. He thanked all for their efforts, including 12 Inner Wheel ladies who helped out. We generated plenty of local media coverage as well.

BNB magic number was 1930.

Sergeant Ken did great damage amongst the crowd and raised many dollars. He also introduced the Cryptic Clue Town Naming Competition. If you can work out “A bird swimming” as a WA country town you will save yourself a dollar next week.

Forum

The Club forum raised some great ideas including, providing some recognition to the Centro Maddington Shopping Centre, donation of a Gopher to the Livingston Shopping Centre, greater promotion of Bring and Buy, and a busy bee at the toilet block at BnB.

Treasurer Wayne assured us we have some funds left and Pres Chris announced that the Changeover will be at the Tudor Catering Establishment on Gwilliam Drive Bibra Lake, near Adventure World.
