He then gave a final summary of what we needed to do. Some members understood, some didn't. but whats new

Stand –in Social Director Ken Syme advised that he was looking at organising another croquet game, possibly on a Sunday afternoon.

Stand –in Youth Director, Mr Syme announced that the Club has contributed $2000 to the Ostry program through the local High School and two teachers (Donna Price and Cherie McMillan) will be undertaking training. He also advised that we are sending 4 young people to RYPEN (Beth Caniglia, Rebecca Berloth, Hayleigh Brakespeare and Candice Dunning)

Stand –in Club Service Director Kenno read out the duties for next week and informed us that Andy would be stand in President next week.

BnB result of 1773 was announced by Dianne's husband.

Sergeant Ken took great amounts of money off all of us, particularly those who didn't work out his cryptic clue. (this week's is "young man rises in stream").

This week the 4.30 club had an unexpected visitor. Dan Stapley and his new wife Emily dropped in on their honeymoon trip around Oz. They made the decision to do new Zealand in two weeks and Oz in four weeks. In 8 days they have done Melbourne, South Australia and the south west of WA and are now heading north to Darwin – then down to Alice and Across to Cairns. They have to average 350Km a day to "succeed in their mission". Dan arrived from Calvary, Canada and stayed with the club for the whole of 1992.

SOCIAL DIRECTOR KEN was also at 4.30

We are still looking for some Bulletin editors for next year
