Assembly session

International Frank reported that he had seen Ross Evans in Murdoch Hospital and that he has a severe problem with his right knee as he has virtually no cartilage and needs a major knee construction. Ross has great concerns as he has six kitchens and a house to be completed.

Frank did a make up at Applecross RC and met up with PP John Hosking who is President and wished to be remembered to all members of his era.

Community Albert reported that donations have been made to Fred Hollows Foundation for $200 and the Kidney Foundation for $100.

Vocational Ted has four awards to be presented to Thornlie Senior High school on 27th March. Park wood primary presentation for Pride of workmanship is on 27th March.

A visit to a water corporation facility is yet to be arranged.

Fund raising Colin reported that this is the worst B&B year ever.

Secretary Doug did not have a lot to report, in fact nothing.

Deputy treasurer Wayne circulated the financial statements.

PE Andy is still looking for volunteers for Vocational Director, Treasurer and Programme Director.
